Name of applicant:

SRG Building (Southern) Pty Ltd

Work Health and Safety Undertaking to which this variation applies:

SRG Building (Southern) Pty Ltd, dated 7 February 2017

The section of the Work Health and Safety Undertaking which is being varied:

MT (f) 1. Case study/lessons learnt published on the SafeWork SA website

SRG will publish an article about the incident, how it came about, and the lesson learnt on the SafeWork SA website.

The timeframe for completion of MT (f) 1. is "within 6 months of commencing the Undertaking"

Reason for variation:

The incident is the subject of a Coronial Inquiry.

SRG has requested to wait until the conclusion of the coronial inquest to publish the document so that the Coroner's findings in relation to causation can be included.

Details of the variation:

The Enforceable Undertaking has been varied to amend the timeframe for completion of MT (f) 1. to "within one month of the handing down of the Coroner's findings in relation to the incident subject of this Undertaking"
