BE A VOICE OF SAFETY
BECOME A HEALTH & SAFETY REPRESENTATIVE (HSR)

Step up
Speak out
Make a difference
Help your workmates
Create a safer workplace

A HSR is an elected voice for workers on health and safety matters.

Why become a HSR?

Represent your colleagues and speak up for their health and safety

Build your knowledge and confidence through fully funded regulator approved HSR training (at least 10 days over a 3-year term)

Help influence safety decisions in your workplace

Empower your team by building trust to make work safer for everyone

Opens new career pathway opportunities

Did you know?

If even one worker requests a HSR, the business must begin workgroup negotiations and hold an election

HSRs can be supported in their roles by deputy HSRs, SafeWork SA and their unions

Employers have legal obligations to support HSRs undertake their role

HSRs cannot be held liable for any acts or omissions done in good faith

This is your chance to lead. Step up today to make a difference.
