I Kelley Edwards am of the opinion that the PCBU has contravened the WHS legislation relating to:
Contravention	More information	Was the contravention rectified?
Not maintaining a safe work environment	When employees were interviewed, they felt unsafe at work this is due to the lack of staff because of the staffing numbers staff ratios to detainees are the biggest issue 1 unit holds up to 50 prisoners Only ever 2 COs per unit. There is also a large number of people who come who need to engage with prisoners (nurses, social workers, etc) and the visit needs to be supervised This means that 2 people isn't enough as you will often only have 1 person watching 50 inmates.
