I Tasha Lee Linke am of the opinion that the PCBU has contravened the WHS legislation relating to:
Contravention	More information	Was the contravention rectified?
Not maintaining safe systems of work	Warehouse 3 is overstocked at the entrance resulting in workers being put at risk of knocking pallets onto themselves while operating a forklift in a much narrower driveway than they should be. Multiple rows vacant further back within the warehouse but are unable to be accessed due to multiple pallets of wine being stacked in front of access to area, this is resulting in additional area's being overstocked and putting workers within the additional areas at risk.	No
Not maintaining a safe work environment	Off-line labelling taking place within warehouse 2 which is putting additional workers at risk as they have no room for the materials required for the job's they are required to do resulting in them being required to walk through the warehouse where there is high level of forklift activity taking place.	No

Not maintaining safe plant and structures	Overstocked Warehouse where pallets are on the floor blocking forklift driveways resulting in multiple near miss accidents occurring on a frequent basis.	No
Inadequate monitoring of the health of workers and the conditions at the workplace	Workers being put under additional pressure to get trucks loaded in a timely manner resulting in rushing which is causing unsafe forklift driving speeds on site and contributing to multiple near miss accidents on site. This is causing high level of stress to both forklift drivers and off-line workers within the area.	No
